

VISITING TEAM GUIDE

Department of Athletics and Recreation
EVENT MANAGEMENT

Dear Coach,

On the behalf of the Athletics & Recreation Department at Bridgewater State University, the Events Management Staff would like to welcome you to our campus. While we realize that travel in New England can be very hectic at times, there are things that can happen on game day that are beyond our control. However, as part of our Hospitality Program we hope that the following information will make your travel and arrival to BSU as worry free as possible. Enclosed you will find directions to our athletic facility, a campus map and a list contact phone numbers. Also attached is a list of phone numbers and locations of local eateries.

We look forward to your visit and good luck with your season!

Locker Room / Post Game Accommodations

All visiting teams will be issued a locker room upon arrival unless one is not available. If you require a locker room or space for a post– game meal please contact Mike Donovan (508) 531-2385 in advance.

Athletic Training / Sport Medicine Center

The Athletic Training room is available to visiting teams pre & post game. The Athletics Training / Sports Medicine Center s are located at The Tinsley Center 108 and the Basement level of Kelly Gymnasium.

EQUIPMENT AND SUPPLIES: We will provide ice, water, cups or water bottles, crutches, splints and radio communication at each field or court for all com petitions. We cannot provide tape and wraps but will be glad to help your athletes if they bring their own supplies.

MODALITIES: All Certified Athletic Trainers may use any of our modalities, which include the following: ice, heat packs, cold packs, ultrasound, and electrical stimulation. If your team is traveling with an athletic training student or without medical personnel, please send a written note for use of any of the electrical modalities other than ice.

PRE-GAME PREPARATION: A Certified Athletic Trainer will be available from approximately two hours prior to an event to thirty minutes after the conclusion of an event. If your team needs any special care, please contact us in advance.

COVERAGE: A Certified Athletic Trainer will be on-site for all home contests. Athletic training students in our educational program will also be at each game. At times, due to multiple contests at one time, a Certified Athletic Trainer may need to be covering two adjacent events simultaneously. We apologize for any inconvenience this may cause but will assure you that the highest risk sports will take priority.
