For immediate release: 11/30/15

Contact: Roger Crosley, New England Football Writers

MANCHESTER, N.H. – Twenty-eight players representing 18 different teams have been named to the 2015 New England Football Writers Division II/III All-New England team.

Massachusetts State College Athletic Conference champion Framingham State University and Northeast-10 Conference runner-up University of New Haven lead the team with three selections each. Northeast-10 Conference champion Assumption College has two picks, as does New England Football Conference champion Western New England University, Fitchburg State University, Middlebury College and Salve Regina University. Also named to the squad were players from American International College, Amherst College, Bates College, Bentley University, Bridgewater State University, Castleton State College, Husson University, Merrimack College, Springfield College, Trinity College and Tufts University.

The Division II Northeast-10 Conference had nine players selected, while from Division III the New England Small College Athletic Conference and the Massachusetts State Collegiate Athletic Conference led with six selections each. The New England Football Conference had four honorees. Two players came from the Eastern Collegiate Football Conference, and one player came from Springfield College which is not affiliated with a New England conference.

The team will be honored at the New England Football Writers Captains and Awards Banquet on Thursday, December 10, at the Montvale Plaza, in Stoneham, Mass. People interested in attending should contact Dick Lipe at Bentley University at 781-891-2334.
